Additional Aviation Cost:
Students must have a third-class FAA medical certificate prior to their first solo flight. It is recommended that you obtain this exam before classes begin. If you feel you have a condition that would cause difficulty in obtaining the FAA medical certificate, discuss this with the Aviation Academic Office (or with an FAA approved physician) prior to applying for admission. The cost for this examination will be approximately $85-$100, depending on your locality.

All flight students are required to purchase a headset. This may be purchased on your own or through the Illini Union Book Store for approximately $250.00.
